George Cipperly

"There's a story about a psychologist who was studying the intelligence of a chimpanzee. He led the chimp into a room full of toys, went out, closed the door, and put his eye to the keyhole to see what the chimp was doing. He found himself gazing into a glittering, interested, brown eye only three inches from his own. The chimp was looking through the keyhole to see what the psychologist was doing."

A gift for this year's graduates ... free checking account service

You want to be sure you manage your money wisely, right? Of course.

So our graduation gift of free checking account service for one year will help you do that.

"How?" you say.

Glad you asked.

When you pay by check your quarterly statement will show what you've spent and where the money went.

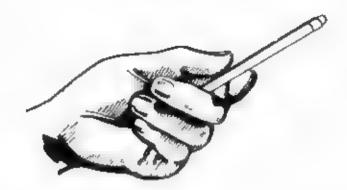

And more.

Those cancelled checks will be proof you paid.

Bev Decker, Athletics; Wendy Sinacore, Clubs; Connie Aldrich, Classes, Judy Rivest, Seniors; and Tanis Sweet, Editor-in-Chief, are all working hard the last day of picture taking.

Debbie Hayes rounded up typists and Paula Southard took care of the business department.

Mr. Fullaytor keeping everyone on schedule.

Ann MacLean and Stevie Guinan pitched in when art work was needed.

I would like to thank Mr. Fullaytor, Yearbook advisor, Mr. Lloyd, our photographer, and the staff at Yearbook House for their help in making the Triumph 1972 Yearbook possible I would also like to thank the students, faculty, and Yearbook staff for their cooperation and help.
